In Vedic philosophy, the entire material cosmos as well as the human body is composed of the Pancha Mahabhutas (five sacred elements): Earth, Water, Fire, Air, and Space. Visiting all five kshetras is viewed as a transformative journey that harmonizes the macrocosm (nature) with the microcosm (the individual).

Clothing:

Western wear (jeans, shorts, sleeveless tops, tight leggings) is strictly forbidden in most Panchabhuta temples.

Comfortable and traditional clothing preferred.
